CIVIL SIDE.

Addendum dated 10*th October* 1934.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 20 of the Legal Practitioners' Regulation, III of 1884, as amended from time to time, and with the approval of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, the High Court is pleased to issue the following addendum to Civil Rule of Practice No. 91, dated 2nd August 1897, as amended from time to time, regulating the fees payable to advocates and pleaders:—

Delete the comma after the word "proceedings" in line 4 of Rule 4 and insert the following between the said word "proceedings" and "the Court":—"other than Land Acquisition Proceedings." The following will be added as Rule 4 (a):—

"In cases under the Land Acquisition Regulation the pleader's fee shall be calculated either on the amount of compensation granted by the Court in excess of the sum tendered by the Deputy Commissioner or on any smaller amount which the Court in its discretion may think proper; when the Court does not allow a higher sum than that tendered by the Deputy Commissioner, the pleader's fees may be awarded to Government on the difference between that sum and the sum claimed or any smaller amount which the Court in its discretion may think proper, subject in either case to a maximum fee of Rs. 500.

As between rival claimants in a land acquisition case, the fee shall be calculated as prescribed for regular suits."
